

INFERENCE

INFERENCE

INFERENCE

INFERENCE

1. Sally was already tired as she brushed her teeth and combed her hair. She left her bathroom and set her alarm for 6:00am and then she laid down in her bed.

What was Sally doing?
How do you know?

2. John sat in the seat, put his seat belt on and pushed the pedal. He rammed into the wall. He turned around and began to laugh as he tracked through the course and made it to the finish line.

What was John doing?
How do you know?

3. My mom picked up the milk and eggs from the freezer. She pushed the cart with my baby sister in it and went through the check-out line.

Where is my mom?
How do you know?

4. It was very quiet when James walked inside. He returned the books in the return items drawer and went to the children's section. He checked out two books and left with his parents.

Where is James?
How do you know?